To Greg Stone and Phil Melanson from Harold Weisberg 6/9/84

Not long after each of you was here, my wife got a call for me one morning from an old friend of Senate committee days. The closest thing at home on which to make notes was a folded sheet of paper. I have yet to write that frined, but I noticed that the had used this folded sheet I did not remember, so I lokked at it. It is not mine and I can't think of anyone other than one of you who could have forgotten it. In the evnt neither of you left this, I've a copy if I hear from another.
